WHO ARE WE?

Andy Howard, Johnny Lasker, and Tim Keegan first met in a Mexican boxing ring. What is really amazing is that Howard and Lasker ended up in the CU dorms together that fall and soon formed the band Claimjumper. Keegan was a frequent visitor to Boulder and the trio stayed close. Fast forward to 2013 and as the Colorado brewery scene took off, Ultralowfi could be found at nearly every taproom. Beyond the beer, the band has played 182 shows across the state and once in Hawaii. In 2023, they added powerhouse drummer, Mark Lacis, into the mix and have beefed up their sound as they expand into all kinds of musical territories.
